The particulars of the accident as near as can be learned are, that dur-ing Saturday a son of Henry Reed, about 14 years of age, the next door neighbor to the Jackson family, went cut in the fields west of the house duck hunting, and returned home shortly after I o'clock with some game. The two little fellows ran to the house and the Reed boy picked up the gun, saying they would go and shoot birds, and raising the gun, it is supposed to have exploded, the full load taking effect in the Jackson boy's breast directly over the heart, tearing a terrible wound in the boy's breast, piercing his heart, it went almost straight through his little body. The force of the shot turned the boy almost completely around, and he fell to the ground dead. Murray leaches the straight the ground dead. Murray Jacobs, who was only a few rods away, was soon at the dead boy's side and with the aid of neighbors the little lifeless body was carried home. The grief of the mother is heartrending, as only about 15 minutes before the accident she had per mitted her little son to go to the Reed

SERIOUS LOSS BY FIRE. Barn, Stable and Hay of Andrew Hansen Destroyed.

Special Correspondence.

Fairview, Sanpete Co., Nov. 9.-Last evening Andrew Hansen suffered a severe loss by fire. A little boy, perhaps between four and five years old, secured a match and went down to the barn to start a fire, which resulted in the entire destruction of his father's barn, stable, corral, 20 tons of hay, and other fodder for winter use. This falls pretty hard on Brother Hansen, as nothing was insured, and he has a pretty large family and in straight circumstances. But as this has been a pretty good year, and the farmers have been blessed with an abundance of hay, it is expected that those who have been blessed with plenty will be willing to sacrifice a little of their abundance to help the unfortunate.

Santaquin, Utah Co., Nov. 10.-A large congregation at the commodious Latter-day Saints' meetinghouse met Saturday evening last to listen to A. C. Rees, a lately returned missionary to Switzerland and now a teacher of Ger-Switzerland and now a teacher of German in the high school of Salt Lake City. With vivid tongue he portrayed his journey on land and sea, and pictured realistically the scenes at the tomb of Washington, Independence Hall, Philadelphia; Niagara Falls, Faneuil Hall, Boston; Berne, Zurich, Geneva, Alpine glaciers, Florence, Genoa, Venice and Rome. This lecture, which is the second of a series to be delivered here this season, was very much appreciated because of its interesting and instructive nature and interesting and instructive nature and because, maybe, that from this place the young man was called on his mission, previous to which he was principal of our schools.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

A CURE FOR ALL.

a Patent Cure-all, Nor a Modern Miracle, But Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia,

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless thy claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look to farther.

In the lace of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making any undue claims or false representations undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this and any man or woman suffering from indigestion chronic or nervous dyspepsia who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it, that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients accepta-ble to the weaker or most delicate ble to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medical properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the over-worked organ and replenishes the body the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required, Simply eat plen-ty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required. DAY TURNED INTO NIGHT.

Another transformation of the interfor of a family mansion resulted in an extraordinary inversion of the plans of nature. The owner, Mr. Brownjohn, a retired stockbroker, was determined to retired stockbroker, was determined to turn night into day, and it cost him thousands of pounds to do it. All the outside windows of the house were built up, so as to exclude every ray of nat-ural light. Entrance to the mansion was by an underground passage; and was by an underground passage; and every room had a door and window opening onto a magnificent central space, which was open to the roof. From the roof, when it was night outside, an finitation sun shone forth an electric glare, who ha filled the whole place with a light as of day.

The wealthy eccentric rose at 9 o'clock each evening, and, having breakfasted, started on a day's routine of work and pleasure. He lunched at 1 in the morning, drank a cup of tea about 4 a. m., and dined at 7 o'clock, retiring to rest about 10 and 11 a. m., when, by an ingenious sliding artangement in the roof, the bright sky and mitation sun were at once transformed ito a concave expanse of inky black-ness; from out of which a host of false stars twinkled and an artificial moon shed forth her spurious beams.—Pear-son's Weekly.

SHAVED THACKERAY'S BUST.

The bust of Thackeray in Westmin-ster Abbey had several years ago upon its cheeks those pendant whiskers that are called "weepers," from their re-semblance to the foliage of the willow. Foday the wiskers are no longer there. Their destruction was due to William H. Lambert of Philadelphia, the greatest collector of Thackerayana in this ountry, who has many portraits in oil, and many in ink, pencil and wash sketches of Thackeray, and hence should know how the novelist looked at never wore "weepers," and therefore he volunteered not long since to stand the expense of the removal of the ob-jectionable whiskers from the other-wis accurate and spirited Marochetti bust. Mrs. Thackeray Ritchie arranged bust. Mrs. Thackeray Ritchle arranged the matter; the bust was taken for a brief space out of Westminster, and the whiskers were trimmed down to the proper length. Mr. Lambert was permitted to have a replica made of the Westminster bust, and it now stands on one of the landings of the stairway ot his house in Germantown.—St. Paul Disparch. Dispatch.

I iquid forms of coronation rejoicing have been pitiful and varied, but the ed is "The King's Reviver. An expert American bartender, who styles himself a "mixologist" and a dispenser of "moist joy," is responsible for this new drink, which is warranted to stand the wear and tear of any climate and to cheer as well as inebriate. The formula is a secret, but it includes a number of ingredients which
